Exclusive Selection

Henschke Hill of Grace Shiraz, Eden Valley, Australia, 2006 39,500

Hill of Grace is surely one of the most evocative phrases in the world of wine. It is a translation from the German 'Gnadenberg', a region in Silesia, and the name given to the lovely Lutheran church that overlooks the vineyard. The 4ha single-vineyard shiraz planting is situated at the historic village of Parrot Hill 4km north-west of Henschke Cellars.

the difference between our expectations after an apparently disastrous summer and the first tastings was so huge the 2002 will remain etched in our memories. Rain was lacking from November to April and by mid-April there was a drought situation. There was substantial rain in May and low temperatures. The summer began with a hot. All the analysis confirmed a high concentration of sugars and the vintages excellent potential

A classy, fine and dense Margaux wine
Chateau Margaux is a 1st Classified Growth of 1855 in the world-famous Margaux appellation and the only First Growth estate to bear the same name as its appellation. Margaux wine was one of the favorite of then U.S. ambassador and the future 3rd president of the United States, Thomas Jefferson, who in 1784 described it as "there cannot be a better bottle of Bordeaux."

Château Mouton Rothschild 1<sup>er</sup> Grand Cru Classé, Pauillac France, 2014 29,000

The commission for the illustration of the 2014 vintage was given to the English painter David Hockney, born in 1937. Influenced by Pop Art and a master of the most up-to-date techniques, from acrylics to the iPad, he nevertheless falls within the figurative tradition, especially portraiture, painting people and objects in bright, contrasting colors.
